

FESTIVE ANTICS AWARENESS 1/2 DAY

COURSE OVERVIEW

Christmas is a special time of the year where you would be encouraging your staff to enjoy themselves; whether this be during the month heading towards the Christmas period (those small Secret Santa presents that potentially may offend), at your Company Christmas Party (where employees drink a little too much and get carried away) or attending your Clients Christmas Party (and acting inappropriately)

Your role as a manager of a team will be to manage your employee's expectations. This half day course gives you the tips and hints to allow your employees to enjoy the Festive season-but in an appropriate way.
